The Annual Report of the Land Commissioner.

Interesting Statistics About the Public Lands—Abusing the Pre-emption and Homestead Privileges—Sales During the Year Last Past—Recommendations and Suggestions by the Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, Hon. N. C. McFarland, in his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior states that the disposals of public lands during the year embraced 19,030,769 acres, and of Indian land 399,235 acres. This amount was an increase over 1882 of about five million acres, and over 1881 of about eight million acres. The receipts from all sources in connection with the disposal of public lands were $11,088,477, and from sales of Indian lands $935,404. The public lands were disposed of as follows: Public sales, 271,000 acres; private entries, 2,917,957 acres; preemption entries, 2,285,710 acres; mineral entries, 31,520; homestead entries, 8,171,914; timber culture entries, 3,110,100; entries with military bounty land warrant, 45,414; entries with land claim scrips, 10,580. The total number of entries and filings posted during the year was 251,685, aggregating 30,000,000 acres. The increase in the number of claims recorded in 1883, was 55,548 over the year 1882. The Commissioner states that he is satisfied that preemption filings are made, or procured to be made, to a great extent for speculative purposes, and renews the recommendation that the preemption law be repealed. The commutation feature of the homestead law is open to the same abuses as the preemption law. He urges that the homestead laws be amended so as to require proof of actual residence and improvement for a period of not less than two years before a homestead entry may be commuted by cash payments. The report further recommends a total repeal of the timber culture law on account of its inherent defect. The construction of 1,210 miles of land grant railroad was reported during the year, making a total of 17,449 miles of road reported as constructed under all grants to June 30, 1883. The question of declaring a forfeiture of these grants to where the railroads have not been constructed in the prescribed time, is deemed an appropriate one for legislation. An increase in the salaries of the Commissioner and various Bureau officers is recommended. He also urges a large increase in the clerical force of the office. Two hundred clerks of the higher grades he says are needed at once. As a reason for this large increase in the force, the Commissioner notes an increase of eighty-two per cent in 1883 in the amount of new business brought into the office over that of 1881, and of thirty-nine per cent over the preceding year, while the increase in clerical force allowed by the last annual appropriation was but ten per cent over the preceding year. There are now pending before the office 600,000 claims of record in some stage of inception or progress under general laws. Pending agricultural claims alone involve adjustment of title to 90,000,000 acres, and if one-half of these claims should be perfected into title, it would take the present force employed upon this work three years to complete the adjustments, leaving the whole volume of business that might come up within that period unprovided for.

FATAL CRASH.

Wood Pile—A Building Down About Their Own Ears.

New York, Nov. 2.—The one story building situated in Thirty-ninth and First avenue, which was in the course of demolition, suddenly collapsed and caused the death of two persons. The building was recently purchased by George Ehret, the brewer, with the intention of building a large cigar factory. Mr. Ehret had sent five carpenters to pull down the structure, which they had scarcely begun to do when they were surrounded by a large number of men, women, and children eager to collect the debris for kindling. The carpenters endeavored to drive away the crowd and one of the wood gatherers, a laborer named John Laws, was seen chopping at one of the joists which were the main support of the building, when suddenly there was a cracking of timber followed by a crash and the roof fell, burying three of the unfortunate pilferers in the ruins. The women were speedily summoned and went at once to work to clear the place. Two dead bodies were taken out and identified. One young man was found pinned to the ground by heavy timbers, after being extracted, was found to be seriously injured. A carpenter who was eating his dinner near the building was also seriously injured by being struck on the head by falling timber. The bodies were removed to the morgue and Coroner Kennedy will investigate the case.

PRESBYTERIANS.

The Virginia Synod Now at It in Charlottesville.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 2.—The third day's session of the Presbyterian Synod of the South, was opened yesterday morning. The University tendered its hospitality to the Synod and the invitation was accepted. Rev. Dr. Hall read the report of the Committee on Work Among the Colored People, which opposed the organization of that race into a separate Synod. In order of the day, the resolution touching the election of laymen moderators was taken up and discussed. A resolution sanctioning the erection of a new chapel for the University was unanimously adopted. The report of the Committee on the Union Theological Seminary was adopted without debate. In the evening the subject of domestic missions was discussed. The report showed there was an increase in the number of members and churches, but a falling off of $10,204 in contributions, as compared with 1874.

OBERLIN FANATICS.

The Extraordinary Lawsuit Growing Out of Liquor Selling.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 2.—The trial of the suit of F. E. Bronson against Rev. James Brant for $30,000 damages has just been commenced in the Court of Common Pleas. Mr. Bronson, who was some time ago the proprietor of a drug store in the village of Oberlin, where, on account of the numerous colleges located in the place, the sale of intoxicating liquors was strictly forbidden, was several times accused of selling whisky contrary to the wishes of the community, thereby incurring their ill will, which finally culminated in the firing and destruction of his store. The present suit grows out of a sermon preached by the Reverend defendant, Feb. 24, 1882, which was afterwards published in the Oberlin News, of which the following is a brief extract: "Ghastly deeds of the past still stretch out their skinny hands and hush thee, good men shall breathe freer at thy death. Thy monument shall be a testimony that a plague is stayed, and as thy guilty spirit is borne on the blast towards the gates of hell, the hideous shrieks of those whom thou hast ruined shall pierce thee." Bronson claims he only sold liquors as medicine, and that on account of the sermon his character and business have been irretrievably ruined. Therefore he prays for damages.

A TERRIBLE DEED.

Brutal Murder of a Twelve-Year-Old Boy in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Charles Schrader, twelve years old, was brutally murdered yesterday morning in a vacant lot near Thirty-sixth street. Henry Peterson, a Swedish laborer, was met while leaving the place by a number of people attracted by the boys screams. "What is the matter, Henry?" asked an acquaintance of the latter. "Oh, nothing, except that I have killed a boy," was the reply. "Come and see," said the murderer, conducting the horrified spectators to the spot where the boy lay dead on the ground with blood and brains oozing from his head. The work was done with a club. "My heart is light now that I've killed him," added Peterson. The latter took his departure, and, although the whole force of police is scouring the southern section of the city, he has not yet been arrested. The murderer is probably insane as there existed no motive for the crime.

Fine Display of Live Stock.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—The display of live stock at Pimlico, under the auspices of the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association, is attracting a great deal of attention. Prominent among the exhibits is a herd of Devons, thirty-five in number, belonging to Mr. Frank Brown. They have a national reputation and are known as the progeny of the Patterson herd, purchased from the Earl of Leicester in 1817. Prince Leopold the Second, bred by the Queen of England and imported by Mr. Brown, a few years ago, is now the head of the herd. S. N. Shoemaker has a magnificent flock of thirty Jerseys at the head of which is the celebrated bull "Forget-Me-Not." Mr. John W. Garrett exhibits a fine flock of Southdowns and forty thoroughbred trotting horses and colts.

A Railroad to the Summit of Pike's Peak.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 2.—The survey of Pike's Peak, with a view of constructing a narrow gauge railroad to its summit, has been completed and a company has been formed to construct the road, which will start at Manitou, at the foot of the mountain, and, by divergencies and curves and steep grades, ascend to the top. The length of the road will be thirty miles, with a maximum grade of 300 feet to the mile. The work will begin at once. The Hon. Jas. H. Kerr, of Colorado Springs, is the President of the company and W. F. Ellis, jr., Chief Engineer.

Punishing Two Railroads.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—A telegram from E. F. Pierson, Assistant Passenger Commissioner of the eastern pooled roads, stated that he has requested the Baltimore & Ohio and the Pennsylvania roads to decline the tickets of the St. Louis & Louisville Air Line and the Chesapeake & Ohio, and to discontinue the issue of tickets from New York and other eastern points by that route from and after the 5th inst. This is said to be in response to the request made by the pooled lines to punish the Air Line and Chesapeake & Ohio for cutting the rates last summer.

Libel Suits Against Five Newspapers.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 2.—George A. Jackson, through his counsel, Harvey Thompson, brought suits for libel against the Dispatch, Commercial-Gazette, Post, and Times. The article upon which the suits are based appeared in the above papers a few days ago in relation to the suit of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, against Mr. Jackson, whom they claimed had failed to turn over, or was responsible for, certain moneys for which he was accustomed to account. The amount of damages claimed has not yet been stated.

Report of the Adjutant General.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Secretary of War has received the report of Adjutant-General Drumm. One of the principal features of the report is the recommendation that the term of service of enlisted men be reduced from five to three years, and re-enlistment remain as at present, five years. The number of desertions during the year ending June 30, 1883, was 3,575, nearly two-thirds of which occurred within the first eighteen months of enlistment.

The Kilbourne-Thompson Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The testimony in the Hallet Kilbourne case related chiefly to Mr. Kilbourne's jail life, how he fared while incarcerated, and how his business suffered while in prison. The testimony on the part of the plaintiff was closed and the defense opened with the testimony of ex-Sergeant-at-Arms John G. Thompson, who testified to the arrest of Kilbourne by order of the House of Representatives.

ZORA BURNS.

We present above an excellent portrait of the unfortunate young girl whose sad fate and the mystery surrounding it have within the past three weeks awakened so wide-spread an interest. Following, as it did, closely upon the heels of the butcheries of Rose Ambler, in Connecticut, and Ada Atkinson, in Indiana, the assassination of Zora Burns, with its many points of similarity to the two preceding tragedies, has taken rank among the most noted and sensational crimes ever committed in the country. As will be seen from the dispatch printed below, the investigation of the crime and the search for the murderer have so far resulted in precisely nothing, save the creation of suspicion against a man who has hitherto enjoyed the respect of the community, and who is associated in the crime by only a slender thread of purely circumstantial evidence.—[Ed.]

LINCOLN, Ill., Nov. 2.—The verdict of the coroner's jury has caused much indignation among those who heard the evidence. One citizen, well known and wealthy, publicly denounced the jury to a crowd of sympathizers, and insisted that a coat of tar and feathers should be given the jurors, after which Carpenter should be taken from the jail and hanged, the decorated jurors to act as pall bearers. Four of the jury believe Carpenter had a hand in the bloody affair. The preliminary hearing will take place Saturday. The verdict of the jury was "killed by an unknown person."

A BURNING VILLAGE.

The Beautiful Town of Willoughby in Flames.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Special from Cleveland, O., says: A destructive conflagration if raging in Willoughby, a small town twenty miles east of this city. The fire originated at two o'clock in an old barn and quickly communicated to the business portion of town. A strong wind was blowing at the time and the flames spread rapidly. The following buildings with their entire contents are already destroyed: Kennedy's livery stable, Kennedy & Sons' hardware store, W. T. Clark's drug store, Baras Bros' paper and paint house, Smith's jewelry establishment, Bartholow's millinery store, A. R. Gunn's residence, Robt. Kennedy's residence and barn. Other business houses are now burning and it is feared the entire business portion of the town will be destroyed. There was no organized fire department in town and everything is at the mercy of the flames. Telegrams have been sent to Fairview and this city for aid.

The Terrible Gale at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 2.—The gale continued all day yesterday and last night. The schooner Sophia Minch stranded early yesterday, going to pieces and will be a total wreck. She was valued at $30,000. Within fifty feet of the Sophia Minch, lies the wreck of the Milwaukee Schooner John B. Merrick with iron ore from Escawaba, which stranded last night. Captain Coleman, wife and eight seamen were saved by the Life Saving Crew. The storm was the most protracted known on the lake for a year. Reports from Sandusky and such lake ports show great damage to small shipping interests.

An Old Woman Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Charlotte B. Furlong, indicted for causing the death of Charity Lewis by malpractice, and recently convicted, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for six years and six months. The only thing that saved her from the full penalty of twenty years was her advanced age, she being fifty-six.

The Fairchild Reception.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 2.—Quite a large number of local society people attended a reception tendered by Geo. W. Westinghouse to ex-Governor Fairchild and lady, of Wisconsin. The best society was well represented, together with a good number of prominent people from other cities. The affair was in every way a success.

The Missing Cincinnati Reporter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Leon Waterman, a German reporter, thirty-two years old, disappeared from Cincinnati the 20th ult., and the Chief of Police of that city has sent postal cards describing the man to the New York police.

Failure of a Paper Company.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The Rock River Paper Company of Chicago and Beloit, Wis., have just failed. Executions are out for $50,000 against them.

SHERMAN'S RETIREMENT.

He Pays His Respects to the President and Takes Leave of the Army.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—General Sherman relinquished command of the Army to Lieutenant General Sheridan, and afterward, accompanied by his successor and Secretary Lincoln, paid his respects to the President. In his official order he thanked the officers and men of the Army for fidelity to the trust imposed upon them during his incumbency, and assured them he would watch their future progress with parental solicitude. In his annual report, submitted to the Secretary of War, General Sherman states that he regards the Indians as substantially eliminated from the problem of the Army. There may be sporadic and temporary alarm, but such Indian wars as have hitherto disturbed public peace and tranquility are not probable. He also renews his recommendation of last year favoring the abandonment of the minor military posts, and that certain strategic posts be enlarged, with permanent barracks to accommodate suitable garrisons.

ORPHAN ASYLUM ABUSES.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Inmate Attempts Suicide Because of Ill Treatment.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Mary Krueger, aged fourteen, an inmate of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, attempted suicide by jumping from a second story window of that institution and sustained serious injuries. She says that her life has of late become unbearable, and that she wants to die. The officials of the institution declare that she was well treated and that there is no other reason for her act than a dislike for the discipline. The story that she tells will be officially investigated.

Tseng Interviewed, Denies Terry's Statements.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The correspondent of the Central News had an extended interview with Marquis Tseng, the Chinese Ambassador. The Marquis stated that the statements made by Premier Ferry before the Chamber of Deputies on the alleged authority of Mr. Tricon were mischievous misstatements concocted in Paris for political effect. The use of the name of Li Hung Chang was unauthorized and ill-advised, inasmuch as Li Hung Chang, being his personal friend and relative, would never have given utterance to such expressions as were credited to him. It was moreover an absurdity to suppose that the Chinese Government would give contradictory instructions to Li Hung Chang and to its representative at Paris.

SAVANNAH'S GREAT CALAMITY.

Over Fifteen Hundred Persons Left Homeless and Helpless.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 2.—Thousands of people have visited the scene of the great fire. The burned district includes a territory half a mile long, and one-eighth, to one quarter of a mile wide. Nearly 1,500 people are homeless, and are being fed by charity. All of them are very poor and most of them are negroes. About 325 houses were burned, most of them being little wooden tenements. Only one large warehouse, one foundry, and a few of the better class of dwellings were destroyed. The loss is probably a little more than $500,000. It is reported, and is probably true, that the remains of nine negroes have been found in the ruins.

Death of a Mysterious Madman.

TORONTO, Can., Nov. 2.—Papers found in the pockets of the young man, who died at midnight raving mad at the Rush House, where he had been regarded as J. M. Burns, Baltimore, indicate that he was Archie Dixon, Paymaster of the Allegheny Railroad office, Pittsburgh. It is alleged he has been mixed up in a murder.

Beauties of the Divorce Laws.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—James B. MacDonald was married in Newark, N. J., about three years ago. Harry Mullin attended the wedding. Shortly after MacDonald found Mullin in unlawful relations with his wife. The false friend, leaving his own wife in Brooklyn, came to Chicago with Mrs. MacDonald. Last week the wronged husband heard of the pair, and yesterday morning had them before Justice Kerstson. The woman surprised her husband by showing him a decree of divorce issued in Bent county, Colorado. He had nothing more to say, and the case was forthwith dismissed. Mullin and the woman in the case have been playing at the National Theater.

Only a Bluff.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 2.—Regarding the published statements that railroad magnates intend to build a new road from Erie, Pa., to Pittsburg, to give the Baltimore & Ohio and Reading Railroad Companies a lake outlet, the following dispatch has been received from Erie: "The new railroad, announced in dispatches from here, to be built by the New York parties over the bed of the old Erie and Pittsburgh Canal, is believed by knowing ones to be only a bluff on the part of those in litigation with the Pennsylvania Railroad over the old canal property, and who wish either to force a settlement or sell out."

Mechanical Engineers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers continued its session. After the transaction of some routine business, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. D. Lavitt, of Cambridgeport, Mass.; Vice Presidents, A. B. Couch, of Philadelphia, J. V. Morrick, of Philadelphia, W. R. Eckert, of San Francisco, John Fritz, of Bethlehem, Pa., Wm. Metcalf, of Pittsburg, Pa. and Henry Norton, of Hoboken, N. J. Several very important papers were read during the morning session.

THE DAILY BULLETIN

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 3, 1883.

The above number represents the circulation, each week of the DAILY and WEEKLY BULLETIN. Advertisers are invited to call and assure themselves of the truth of the statement, and they are requested to bear in mind that our rates for advertising are the lowest.

In Mississippi, as in Louisiana, the levee question has been a matter of the most importance. Great railroad activity prevails and many new cotton mills are going up.

FLORIDA hopes to become the garden and orchard of the United States, and looks to the redemption of the swamp which has made so large a portion of Southern Florida uninhabitable.

TENNESSEE has at least four sources of wealth: Its fertile fields, that produce every crop known in this country; its manufactures, its minerals, and its immense wealth of valuable timber.

THE corn crop of 1883 is the largest, with a single exception, in the history of the United States, the carefully gleaned figures aggregating 1,521,100,000 bushels. Think of it, and congratulate yourself upon living in such a fertile country.

THE reduction of our letter postage is now attended with a large increase of postal business the country over. In the Philadelphia office fully twenty per cent. more letters are now being handled daily than before the reduction took place on the first of October.

Gov. BUTLER says that the rights of the people of Massachusetts have been circumscribed by laws recently enacted until it is harder for an elector to approach a ballot box in Massachusetts than in any other State in the Union. He says the Republican party is becoming aristocratic and is drifting back to the position of the old Whig party.

From interviews with the Governors of the Southern States, namely, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, the New Orleans Times-Democrat makes a table of assessments, showing that since 1879 there has been an aggregate increase in wealth of $640,707,000; that $300,000,000 have been invested in railroads in these States, and that the railroad mileage has been increased from 17,260 to 26,049. Cotton manufacturing in Alabama, Georgia and North and South Carolina has increased from 128 to 150 mills.

According to the census bulletin the number of farms in the United States was 2,600,000 in 1870, and 4,000,000 in 1880. Much of the increase is in the new territories, some of which were sparsely settled ten years ago, but the fact that Alabama, Florida and Texas have more than doubled the number of their farms in the time, while Georgia, Arkansas, South Carolina and North Carolina have nearly doubled, and Mississippi, Virginia and Louisiana have increased from fifty to sixty per cent., shows that there has been a cutting up of large plantations into smaller holdings.

Personal Remarks.

Liszt is not now the lithe and graceful man of former years. While growing old he has also grown portly—almost fat.

Mr. Blaine politely but firmly turns his back on an offer of $100,000 for his new book.

Perry Belmont will shake up the fashionable folks at Washington this winter with his dinners.

The granddaughter of Davy Crockett is living poor and in feeble health at San Antonio. She has three children with hungry mouths to support.

A Cent a Kiss.

In the case of Mary Ann Miller against Stephen Beck, an action to recover damages for breach of promise of marriage, the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,108 33. The case was a novel one. The parties were first cousins, and both have reached and partly passed the prime of life. The plaintiff was housekeeper for the defendant, and told how he addressed her in the usual country style of courting. When asked if he had ever kissed her she said: "More than a hundred thousand times." The verdict she gained is at the rate of a cent a kiss, with a little interest thrown in.

All-opathy.

The New York doctors had another pitched battle on Monday night, October 22nd, over the new code. The contest was carried from the Academy, in which the liberals won the day by a vote of 121 to 94, to the County Medical Society. Five hundred and ninety-nine doctors were on hand. Dr. Austin Flint, Jr., lead the conservative party, and Dr. S. O. Vanderpool the liberals. The vote resulted in 375 for the new code to 220 against it. This will put an end to the fight in New York for some time, and now the Allopathic lion can lie down with the Homeopathic lamb. It is devoutly to be hoped that there will be no increase in the mortality among their patients.

A NEW BIT OF ROGUERY,

In Which a Clever Youth is Aided by a Pretty Girl.

Baltimore Sun.
An ingenious swindle, and one which has been worked to great success, has been practiced on unsuspecting trade people, druggists and others in Baltimore this week. The latest three transactions took place about dusk Thursday evening, October 18th, and the victims were all within a short distance of each other. About the time mentioned a well-dressed young man, attended by an engaging looking young lady, drove up in front of a well-known drug store in North Baltimore. He did not alight, but called loudly for the proprietor of the store, who went out to see what was wanted. Then the genteel young man, in a hurried and breathless way, explained that he was the son of a well-known coal dealer, with whom the druggist was on very intimate terms. The lady in the carriage was his wife, and they were on their way to an entertainment, when he suddenly discovered he was without a cent of money. Would the druggist kindly loan him $10, as he was in too great a hurry to go all the way back home for some. Of course the drug store man would. The boldness of the request and the appearance of the young man were sufficient, and the druggist went into the store, took $10 from the drawer, returned to the carriage and handed the young man the money. After a few hurried thanks the vehicle was driven rapidly off. It stopped in front of a grocery store not more than a block away. The young man went through the same programme, and obtained the money asked for. Then the couple drove to a drug store near the boundary, and by the same operation, except that the young man represented himself as the son of a prominent manufacturer and the lady as his sister, the $10 was obtained. Other places were similarly victimized, one Baltimore street merchant losing $25, and, it is thought the couple left Baltimore with several hundred dollars obtained from the confiding storekeepers.

Mrs. Jackson's Visit to Boston.

N. Y. World.
There is a great deal of foolishness in the South yet. The people who are guilty of it are of the class that might be brayed in a mortar without being impressed by the process; but even these creatures are capable of doing great harm. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the late Confederate chieftain, recently visited Boston in company with her daughter. On her return to Charlotte, N. C., she found that certain Southern newspapers had reflected upon her to such an extent that it was incumbent upon her to write a card. This she did. In it she says that herself and daughter, in company with Gov. Jarvis of North Carolina, and his wife visited the Boston Exposition as guests of Massachusetts, and not, as she and they understand it, of Gov. Butler. She accepted the invitation, she says, by the advice of Southern friends. While in Boston Mrs. Jackson says their party remained at the hotel and did not cross the threshold of Gov. Butler's residence. The people of Boston and elsewhere north, Mrs. Jackson declares, gave evidence that her husband's name was held in high honor and reverence. She adds:
I was told they admired him for his moral grandeur, his exalted piety; that he was the bravest man the war produced on either side, and that they were proud of him as an American. Surely, there must be enough chivalry and right feeling on the part of all true Southerners to cast no blame upon me for having been the means of evoking such sentiments.

The people of the South ought to feel proud that the widow and daughter of one of their greatest soldiers can meet a cordial and hearty welcome in the city which was once regarded as the citadel of their enemies. As for Governor Butler, the tribute recently paid him by General Beauregard ought to have a tendency to allay prejudice against him.

A young woman in Erie, Pa., has married her brother's wife's father. She therefore becomes her brother's mother-in-law.

The following epitaph came before the Oldham Corporation Cemeteries' Committee for approval: "Think what a wife should be, and she was that."

A certain Boston Belle, endowed with twenty-five dress fans, has fallen into decline. Some thoughtless person reported to her that Ex-Queen Bess, of England, had five more, some of them richly jeweled.

An old lady named Brown, of Hinton, Mich., has the grayest of hair, which is now turning its original color. She is cutting her third teeth. She has had her second eyesight for years, and can see to do fine work.

Mr. Spurgeon says that the reasons which a good woman presented for objecting to a certain preacher were striking ones. She said that, in the first place, he read his sermon; in the second, he did not read it well; and in the third place, she said it was not worth reading.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 3, 1883.

ROSEB & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To whom address all communications.

We make a vow that we'd forsake
The Devil, branch and root,
And when we started heavenward
We'd take the Harbord chute.
But having heard that Sweeney man,
We wish right here to say,
We'd cheerfully go with either,
Were t'other dear charmer away.

Notice.

Our subscribers at Aberdeen will be waited upon on Friday morning of each week by Mr. William E. Austin, who is authorized to collect all subscriptions due for the DAILY BULLETIN.

OVER one million bushels of coal have left Pittsburg on the present rise in the river.

MR. FRANK R. PHISTEN's handsome chromo advertising card is attracting much attention. It is as neat and attractive as any we have ever seen.

MAYSVILLE needs a daily with news that is not soured by the patent plate process.—New Republican.

Maysville needs a few editors who are not soured by the success of their more enterprising contemporaries.

THERE is no surer evidence of general prosperity than the large number of marriages occurring this fall. Cupid is happy, Hymen hilarious, and wedding present dealers are in ecstasy.

We are requested to say that the fire at Prof. Wilson's school house did not originate from a defective flue as stated by the Republican. It was caused by a spark from the chimney falling upon the roof.

THE contract to put a tin roof on the new Catholic Church at Mayslick, has been awarded to Messrs. Bissett, McClanahan & Shea, who are now doing the work, and it is hardly necessary to say it will be well done.

MAYSVILLE is a growing city with an enlightened and cultivated population. She has a number of excellent weekly newspapers, and there is no good reason why she should not have more than one good daily paper. For our part we would be pleased to note the inauguration of such an enterprise.

THE fact that the Eagle has been awarded the city advertising is a benefit to the people of Maysville. A considerable sum of money is saved by printing the ordinances in one paper only while the end desired is fully obtained. The price bid by the Eagle is as low as the most exacting citizen could expect.

DON'T pay the BULLETIN's price for matches.—New Republican.

THE BULLETIN has no price for matches. It claims the honor only of having regulated the price of that article. Last week there were a number of merchants in Maysville who were apparently ignorant that the tax had been removed. This week matches are sold everywhere in the city at the proper prices.

MR. JOSEPH OVERLEY, a valued citizen, died at his residence on the Flemingsburg turnpike, near this city, on the 20th ult., in the seventy-fourth year of his age. He had been in feeble health for some time and his death was not altogether unexpected. Mr. Overley was a mechanic and had worked continuously at his trade for more than forty years. A good and useful man is lost to the community.

REFERRING to the BULLETIN's suggestion that the name of Second street shall be changed to "Don's Walk," the New Republican says:

And we respectfully suggest to Council that the above is a bore's talk, and should be placed on record as such.

The Council is respectfully informed that we admit the soft impeachment with the amendment that it is a smooth-bore's talk, that his center every time, and we have no objection to its being placed on record as such.

THE Amazon Fire Company have elected the following officers to serve the ensuing six months:

Second Director—W. H. Davis.
Chief of Hose—L. M. Shaffer.

THE Buckeye State has been sold to the Big Sandy and Pomeroy Packet Company, and will take the place of the Ohio in the Portsmouth trade while the Bonanza is completing her repairs. The Ohio is withdrawn from the same position in order to permit of her receiving needed repairs. It is understood that both the Ohio and Buckeye State will enter the Cincinnati and Pittsburg trade as soon as repairs are completed, under the auspices of the Big Sandy and Pomeroy Packet Company.

The Churches.

Rev. A. Boring will preach at the Chester M. E. Church to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock.

The Rev. A. Boring will hold services at the Third street M. E. Church to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours.

There will be preaching at the Christian Church in Washington, by Rev. A. N. Gilbert, on Sunday afternoon at 3:15, if it is not raining at 2:15.

There will be a church meeting at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Important business is to be transacted and a full attendance of members is requested.

Rev. S. B. Alderson will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning taking for his subject, "Loving God." In the evening he will lecture on "Martin Luther and Reformation."

A protracted meeting will begin at the Southern Methodist Church to-morrow at eleven a. m. Rev. Harry Henderson, the pastor's son, will aid his father after Monday, the remainder of the week, and over the second Sabbath in this month. Let everybody attend, for all are most cordially invited.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert will give the fifth lecture of the course on "Science and Revelation," which has excited so much interest in the community, at the Christian Church, on Sunday night, discussing upon this occasion "the creation of man and woman." It is around this question that the great "battle of books" rages at the present time. Mr. Gilbert will preach as usual at 10:45 in the morning. Below is a syllabus of the evening lecture:

SYLLABUS.

Nature beautiful, but none to enjoy it—God determines to give it a master—what does the plural of deity mean?—the image of God—whence our spirits?—the formation of woman—Ingersoll's attack—vindication of the Mosaic account—Darwinism, what is it?—its fatal deficiencies—the reason of its popularity—creation, the only tenable view of the origin of man.

FIRE AT PARIS.

Hutchcraft & Ford's Warehouse and Other Property Burned—Loss $50,000.

Special to the BULLETIN.

Paris, Ky., Nov. 3, 1883.—The large four-story building belonging to Hutchcraft & Ford was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, together with a frame building adjoining used as a hatching house, which was filled with hemp and grass seed. The total loss is about $50,000, and is covered by insurance amounting to $11,050.

COUNTY POINTS.

MAYSVILLE.

Mr. John T. Wilson and wife returned from Chicago last Friday night.

We were in error last week in stating that Egnew & Allen had the job of putting the roof on the Catholic Church in this place. It was Bissett & Co.

Rev. M. N. Riley left on last Thursday morning for his new field of labor at Bowling Green.

Rev. Mr. Clay, of Central Kentucky, will preach in the Christian Church on next Sunday, the 11th inst., at eleven o'clock a. m.

We attended the debate at Sardin last Thursday and Friday. It was largely attended, and the discussions were very interesting, but we think that it was rather a one-sided affair, Sweeney having decidedly the advantage from a scriptural standpoint.

J. A. Jackson sold his new heater to Perry Johnson at four and three-fourth cents a pound.

SARDIN.

The debate has proven a first class entertainment, the best of feeling has prevailed with the disputants and while here and there some sensitive person has become a little "riled" by the witty spots and sarcastic hits of the worthy warriors, a little reflection and the congregation's siding of the dogology has left quiet and noble points to dying again, and the outdoor interchange of thoughts and opinions has been all smiles, peace and serenity. The main question as to whether the disciples were scriptural in their position, teachings and pretences, being discussed two days, Sweeney in the affirmative and Harford in the negative is now reversed, Harford affirming that the position of the M. E. Church is scriptural and Harford in the affirmative seems to be stronger than in the negative. He dashes off in gallant style, profound and able, witty and sparkling, and himself a little "riled" as a scholar and a gentleman. A. J. then Sweeney comes like an athlete bounding into the arena, armed at every point, as Joseph from the brain of Winerva, sharp and clever, quick and accurate he makes every blow tell. The audience, numbering over five hundred, sways to and fro, and even the impartial spectators are fully riled up and ready for victory. Much interest is centered in Harford as he is a new man in the highest polemics, this being the first time he has ever contended for some stake in a debate. When the smoke of the contest has cleared away I will send up results and tell you how much good has been done by the war of words.

NOTES.

Mr. W. T. Sutt entered Elmer Hall and Pyles and other guests.

At H. M. Pyles, Misses Maggie Burrows and Bettie Pyles were guests.

Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Frazee were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Sam. Proctor.

Mr. A. White and lady had for their guests Major John Boyd and wife, of Bowling Green.

Judge Dye entertained Rev. Harford and his moderator, Rev. Boring, during the debate.

Misses Jessie Tilton and Carrie B. Clark were guests of Miss Lizzie Sutt and Wm. K. Swartz.

Shirley Spates gave several dings, at once with Mrs. H. D. W. Tom, Miss Talbot and Miss Fritz were guests.

Mrs. A. J. Styles entertained Misses Harris and Thompson, of Georgetown, and Miss Ada Thompson, of Mayville.

Mr. Oliver was represented by Judges Lytle and DeLong, W. J. Chandler and wife, Dr. Tilton, Dr. Linville and Wm. Buckler and wife.

Squire Gillsby had many rooms but they were all filled. Elder Sweeney and a number of other preachers making his house their headquarters.

The debaters and a number of other guests dined with Mrs. James Leachman on Wednesday. Her daughter, Miss Mary, assisted in doing the honors of the occasion.

Among the many old acquaintances met, we may mention, Robert E. Poyntz, John Clarke, Dr. Lawwell, Mrs. Howe, Hiram Dye, H. C. Hawkins, J. A. Jackson and John Caldwell.

The BULLETIN representative was bountifully fed and regaled by the kind hosts of Mrs. A. J. Styles, Mrs. Dr. Browning, Mrs. Wesley Pather and Mrs. John Clarke; here we were most pleasantly entertained by those vivacious ladies, Misses Anna Clarke, Bettie Layman, and Dora Berry.

ORANGE AND THE GREEN.

Narrow Escape From a Bloody Riot in Ireland.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin Hooted and Jeered in the Streets of Londonderry—Roofing Slates and Revolver Shots Fired Down Upon a Land League Street Procession—Many Persons Wounded.

LONDONDERRY, Nov. 2.—STILL LATER.—After the announcement of the decision of the City Council rescinding the motion to grant them the use of the City Hall for the purpose of holding a meeting, the Nationalists proceeded in a body to the railway station to await the arrival of Mr. Dawson, the Lord Mayor of Dublin. The train bearing His Lordship had scarcely halted at the depot when he was hooted and jeered and hurried to a carriage by a reception committee. A procession was then formed and the line of march taken through the principal streets to the hotel, where a banquet had been prepared. Wherever possible along the line of the route of the procession Orangemen had taken positions in the windows and upon the roofs of the buildings. For a short time, as the Nationalists were passing along the roadway, the Orangemen above contended themselves with hooting, jeering, and showering imprecations upon the Land Leaguers. Suddenly a pistol shot was heard. This was apparently the signal for an attack, as revolvers were fired in rapid succession all along the line, while slates were torn from the roof and hurled upon the heads of the Nationalists. Having given vent to their excess of bad feeling the Orangemen made no further demonstrations and the violence subsided after a few desultory shots. Considering the extent of the firing and the number of missiles thrown, the casualties were few. One Catholic, a boy, was shot and may die from the effect of his wound, and perhaps ten or twelve others were more or less seriously hurt. The hotel was reached without further interruption and the Nationalists dispersed. Mr. Dawson in the afternoon issued a request to his friends and supporters to abstain from acts of violence in retaliation for the outrage. In the evening Mr. Dawson delivered a lecture at the National Institute on the subject of "Franchise." His audience was large and enthusiastic. No attempt was made to interfere with the progress of the lecture. The town is now perfectly quiet and no further outbreak is apprehended. Several Orangemen were arrested for firing revolvers at the procession and search is being made for others who are known to have been concerned in the attack.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 22 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882."

Group.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, Mrs. EMMA GEDNEY."

150 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882. "I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882."

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN, Ryhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882."

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON, Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882."

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
